Friendship Circle

In the appropriate section of the circle below, list the names of at least 15 people that you know. Think about the following questions. Where did you meet them? How long have you known them? How do they influence your life? What traits do they possess that you admire? Can an acquaintance become a close friend? Be prepared to share your answers.