Education and Training in Travel and Tourism Management

Directions: Complete after viewing slide presentation, Careers in Travel and Tourism Management. Flow chart should reflect your plans for continuing your education and training. Answer the questions below.

1. Did you omit or add in any additional steps? If so, which ones? ________________________________

2. Is employment in the Travel and Tourism industry a career goal for you? ________________________________

3. What skills do you currently possess that could lead to success in this industry? ________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________