Education and Training Career Research Assignment

Research and read information from reliable sources, including print media, the internet and the campus guidance counselor on specific careers. Assignment must include the following: career cluster, possible courses/training needed for the career, possible CTSO to join, career preparation needed and any summer plans such as training, employment, and service/volunteer work that could add to knowledge of the career.

Suggested topics:

Career Cluster Pathways

Education and Training

Teacher, early childhood educator, education counselor, principal, coach, superintendent, curriculum developer, school administrator, instructional media designer *other career topics may be chosen with teacher approval.