My Lifestyle and Dream Job

As you move into adulthood, it’s important to think about your personal lifestyle and career options. What does a “real” job require? What kind of lifestyle do you want?

1. In what geographic area do you want to live? _______________________________

2. Describe the type of home you plan to live in. _______________________________

3. Describe your dream vehicle. _____________________________________________

4. Describe the hobbies or leisure activities you would like to do. __________________

5. Talk about your dream job. What would you really like to do? _________________

6. What does it require to get to that job? _____________________________________

7. How much education is required? __________________________________________

8. What kind of experience do you need to reach the top level of that profession? _________________

9. Is this profession available in this geographic area, or would it require a move? For instance, if you want to be a marine biologist, you probably can’t live in Lubbock, Texas! _________________________________

10. What type of hours would you be working? Are those compatible with your idea of family life? _____________________________________________

11. What kind of salary would you require? _____________________________________

12. Does that profession support that type of salary? Professionals, such as doctors and attorneys, will generally make more money than teachers. _________________________________
14. Is salary the most important part of a career? __________________________

15. Why are you interested in this profession? __________________________
