What is Trending in Late Adulthood?

In subgroups of four, you will research a topic related to late adulthood. You will develop a five minute oral presentation on one of the following topics:

- Age Discrimination Act
- The Increasing Retirement Age
- Effects of Mobile Society on Older Adults
- Technology for Older Adults
- Elder Abuse
- Family and Social Interactions with Older Adults

You presentation should include:

- Factors affecting older adults in the related topic
- Personal experiences related to the topic. Do you have family members experiencing similar changes/events?
- Supportive agencies or resources to assist with the related topic
- Positive and negative aspects of the related topic

You will be assessed with “Rubric for Oral Presentation - Late Adulthood”

Use the area below to take notes on the information obtained for the oral presentation

____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

Rewards and Challenges: Development in Late Adulthood
Copyright ©Texas Education Agency, 2014. All rights reserved.