Who Are Your Grandparents?

Think about your family. Answer the following questions. Grandparents can be biological or “adopted.”

Do you have a grandmother? ___________________ What do you call her? ___________________
A grandfather? _______________________________ What do you call him? ___________________
What is your fondest memory of your grandparents?
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________
How old are they? _____________________________

Are they still working? ______ What do they do? _______________________________________

Where do they live? __________________________

Do you have great-grandparents? ______________

If you have great-grandparents, share some information about them.
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________