Conflict Resolutions
Describe an incident or problem that occurred to you, a family member or a friend. Complete the chart with the appropriate information.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Conflict</th>
<th>Emotions</th>
<th>Choices</th>
<th>Consequences</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Example: You recently discovered that you were not invited to a close friend's birthday party. You knew her birthday was coming up, and you spent time and money creating a unique present for her.</td>
<td>Hurt, sad, angry, awkward, confused, left-out and betrayed</td>
<td>1. Getting into a verbal confrontation with her 2. Posting something hurtful about her on social media 3. Talking to her one-on-one</td>
<td>1. The verbal confrontation might escalate to physical violence 2. You might lose her friendship forever 3. After talking to her, you discovered that she mailed out the invitations. She wrote the wrong address on the envelope, and the invitation was returned to her. She hands you your invitation.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
List five ways conflicts can be resolved peacefully.

________________________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________________________